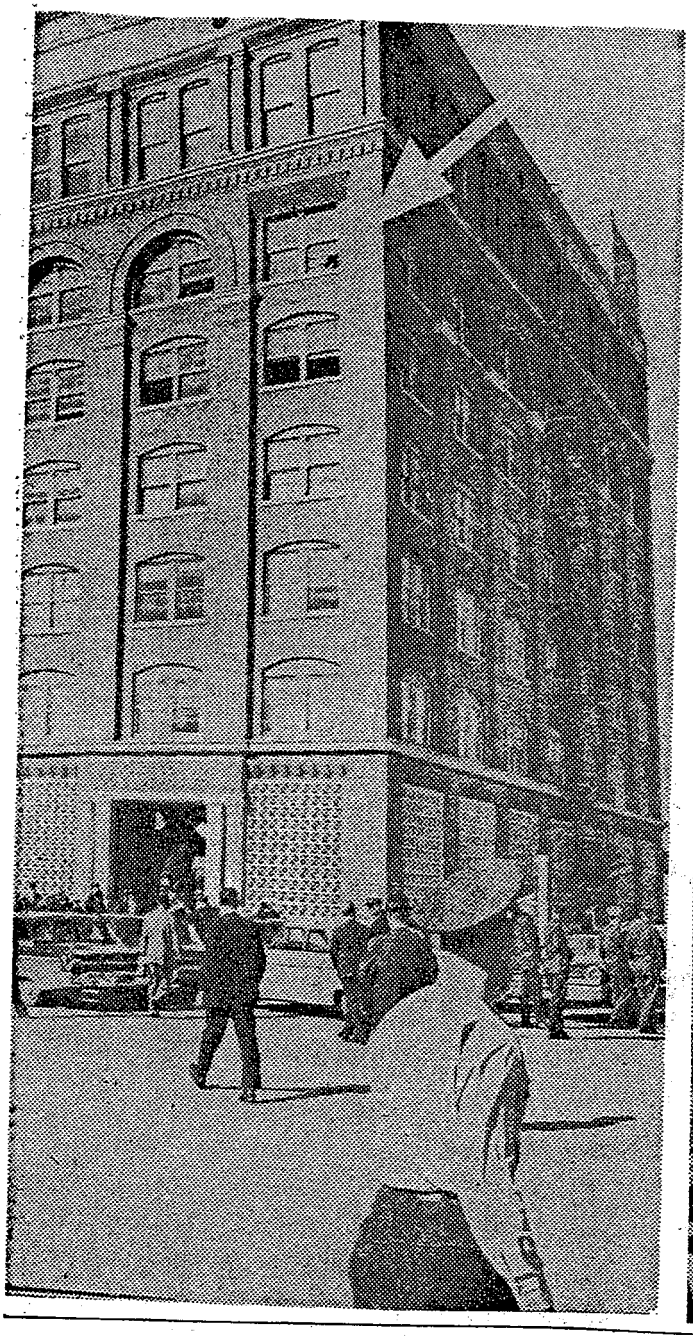
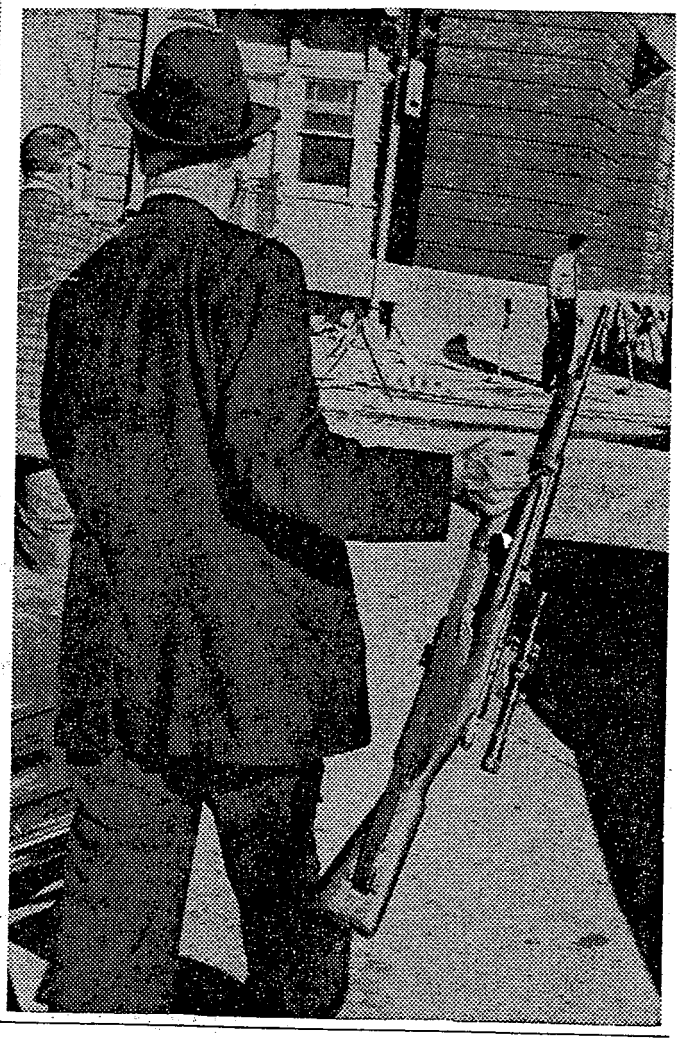
The Lair, The Gun





THE WINDOW (arrow, right) from which President Kennedy was cut down, hangs broken, the killer fled. On the floor behind the window, lay remains of fried chicken. What is believed to be the assassination weapon (below), a high-powered .25 calibre Japanese army rifle is carried away by Dallas Police Lt. Carl Day. It was fired while people worked in the business building.